Mr Farmer's message

Dear families,

Welcome back to a brand-new term! It has been wonderful to see all of the children return so brilliantly, settled, enthusiastic, and ready to learn.

On Tuesday, I had the absolute pleasure of showing a Director of Education from the Blue Kite Trust around our school. She was incredibly impressed by how polite and well-behaved all of our pupils were throughout the tour. Furthermore, she spoke very highly of how focused and engaged the children were in their lessons, which is a true testament to their wonderful work ethic and dedication.

This term, we are excited to introduce our new school value: Trust. We will be exploring what trust means in our daily lives, how we build it with one another, and how it helps us create a safe, supportive school community.

With a busy and exciting term ahead, please be sure to check the school calendar regularly for important dates and upcoming events. Thank you for your continued support!

Have a great weekend.
Kind regards,
Mr Farmer

Focus on: Remembrance

As November arrives, our school community takes time to observe Remembrance. This annual tradition offers a gentle and meaningful opportunity for our children to reflect on the importance of peace, unity, and the sacrifices made by brave individuals throughout history.

On 11th November at 11:00 AM, staff and students will join together for a special assembly followed by a traditional silence. This quiet moment allows us all to pause, remember, and give thanks for the peace and freedoms we enjoy today.
Poppies and remembrance wristbands are currently available to purchase in school for a small donation, with all proceeds going directly to The Royal British Legion.
