

English

Books - Black Dog by Levi Pinfold
Stone Age Boy by Satoshi Kitamura

To use all punctuation taught consistently and accurately. E.g. full stops, exclamation marks, commas and question marks.

To use carefully chosen adjectives when writing expanded nouns phrases.

To use quality verbs for 'went'.

To use co-ordinating conjunctions for compound sentences.

To use sub-headings and simple paragraphs.

To form letters of the correct size, joining as appropriate.

To proof-read and edit their writing.

Humanities

To describe what life was like during the three stages of the Stone Age.

To ask questions and find out the answers about the Stone Age era.

To understand how Stone Age people would have hunted and gathered food.

To explain how Britain changed during the Stone Age using a timeline to help.

To place events on a timeline using dates.

To present findings about the Stone Age using a variety of skills.

Maths

Number and Place Value:

To represent and partition numbers up to 1,000.

To place numbers on a number line.

To compare and order numbers.

Addition and Subtraction:

To continue exploring addition and subtraction of higher value numbers in a variety of contexts.

To review strategies for adding and subtracting across 10 and 100.

Times tables: 2, 5 and 10

R.E

Festivals: How do they celebrate the natural world?

Sycamore Autumn 1

Believe ~ Learn ~ Grow

Art/DT

Painting
Cave Paintings

Value & PSHE

Thankfulness

PSHE: Being Me in My World.

To develop skills to help us work together as a team.

P.E

Wednesday: Fitness

Thursday: Netball

Science

Introduction to Earth materials-
Rocks and soils

Computing

Computing systems and networks -
Connecting computers.

French

J'apprends le Francais.

Music

The Environment and Building.
Composing and performing.