Mr Farmer's message

Dear families,

I hope this newsletter finds you well. As we approach the end of another busy term, I would like to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude to all who attended our recent parents' evening. Your engagement and support are invaluable to our school community. I would also like to extend my heartfelt thanks to our dedicated teaching staff for their tireless efforts in preparing for and conducting these important meetings.

Looking ahead, I am delighted to announce an exciting new event on our school calendar. On Thursday 3rd April, we will be holding our first interhouse egg rolling competition. This egg-traordinary event promises to be a highlight of the term, combining friendly competition with a touch of seasonal fun. We kindly request that all pupils bring a hard-boiled egg to school on the day to participate in this egg-citing challenge.

This innovative addition to our school activities aims to foster house spirit and encourage teamwork among our pupils. We anticipate that it will be an enjoyable experience for all involved, creating lasting memories and potentially establishing a new school tradition.

Kind regards,
Mr Farmer

Reading volunteers

Do you enjoy helping children make progress with their reading?
Have you got an hour or two to spare each week?

We are looking for reading volunteers to help support group reading with our EYFS and KS1 children. Full training will be given. If this is something that interests you, please contact the school office.

Message from All Saints Church

Hog Roast & Farewell for Tudor and Tricia

After 17 remarkable years of dedicated service at All Saints, Tudor and Tricia will be transitioning to new chapters in their lives at the end of April 2025. Tudor will be retiring, while Tricia embarks on a new role in Plymouth. Their final service at All Saints will be on Easter Sunday, 20th April 2025, at 10.30am.

To express our gratitude for all they have done for our church and community, we invite you to join us for a special send-off event in the Parish Hall:

 Sunday, 20th April 2025

 12:30 PM – 5:00 PM

 Lydiard Millicent Parish Hall

There will be a delicious hog roast, with vegetarian option, along with salads and desserts. The event is free, with optional donations on the day. Please bring your own drinks.

Information Required

There are 3 ways you can participate and in order to do so please contact Nicky Iddon, nicholajane@aol.com
