Mr Farmer's message

Dear families,

What a fantastic time we all had celebrating World Book Day today! The school was buzzing with excitement as our children teamed up to read together as buddies, fostering a wonderful sense of community and shared learning. It was a delight to see the children fully immersed in their adventures, whether they were completing our book scavenger hunt or enjoying quiet, reflective moments exploring new stories in the library. A huge thank you to everyone who helped bring the magic of reading to life.

I would like to share a quick update regarding our Acorn Collective Worship, which has been postponed until after the Easter break. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this rescheduling may cause and appreciate your understanding as we adjust our calendar.

Finally, it is with a heavy heart that I share some sad news. Miss Williams will be leaving us at the end of next week. She has been an absolutely invaluable member of our team, serving as a dedicated teaching assistant in Acorns and a truly wonderful admin officer. Her kindness and support will be greatly missed by staff and pupils alike, and we wish her all the very best in her next chapter.

Have a great weekend.

Kind regards,
Mr Farmer

Focus on: Parent Survey

Thank you to everyone who completed the parent survey. It has provided us with some really valuable insights and things to consider.

Here are the highlights:

100% of parents say their children are happy at school

100% of parents say their children are safe at school

100% of parents say their children do well at school

94% of parents say school lets them know what their child is learning

94% of parents say that if they have raised a concern it has been dealt with properly

86% of parents would recommend this school to others

THANK YOU!
