Mr Farmer's message

Dear families,

As we draw the curtain on another term, I find myself reflecting on the myriad accomplishments and experiences that have enriched our school community. This week the KS2 carol concert stands out as a particular highlight, and I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Mrs dos Santos, Mrs Richmond, and Mr Summerson for their dedication in orchestrating this delightful event. Their efforts have undoubtedly contributed to the festive spirit that permeates our school.

This week we bid a fond farewell to Mrs Trinder and I am sure you will join us all in wishing her well for her new adventures.

In recognition of our pupils' commendable behaviour and hard work, on Wednesday we enjoyed a whole school gem point treat, indulging in a Christmas movie. This collective reward serves as a testament to the positive ethos we continue to nurture at Lydiard Millicent CE Primary School.

As we bid farewell to 2023, I must express my profound appreciation for the unwavering commitment and tireless efforts of all our staff members throughout this term. Their dedication to our pupils' education and wellbeing is truly commendable and forms the bedrock of our school's success.

Looking ahead, I kindly remind all parents that school resumes on 6th January. Until then, I wish you all a restful and joyous Christmas Break.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Kind regards,
Mr Farmer

Advent

Advent's Third Week: A Time for Joy

The third week of Advent is a time to light the candle of joy. As we approach Christmas, we can feel a sense of excitement and anticipation. Joy comes from many sources, such as spending time with loved ones, sharing kindness, and appreciating the simple pleasures of life.

Let's share our joy with others this week. We can do this by smiling, offering compliments, and performing acts of service. By spreading joy, we can brighten the lives of those around us and create a more positive atmosphere.

Advent's Fourth Week: A Time for Love

The fourth week of Advent is a time to light the candle of love. Love is the most important gift of all. It is the foundation of strong relationships and a source of comfort and support.

We can show love to others by expressing our gratitude, offering forgiveness, and providing help when needed. Let's make a conscious effort to love one another this week. By doing so, we can create a more compassionate and caring world.
